

CHAPTER 21

EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE

21-1. PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM.

a. The Total Army Performance Evaluation System (TAPES) includes guidance on the performance planning and performance appraisal process and requires that employees be evaluated by knowledgeable and qualified managers and supervisors on an annual basis.

b. For more detailed information, see the Fort Bragg Total Army Performance Evaluation System (TAPES) Handbook, dated April 2001. If, after checking out the handbook, there are questions, you may call the Labor Management Office.

21-2. UNACCEPTABLE PERFORMANCE.

Fort Bragg policy and procedures covering reduction-in-grade and removal based on unacceptable performance are addressed in the Fort Bragg TAPES Handbook. For assistance call the Labor Management Office.
